

Funding Search Request Tool

Description

The Resource Center, administered through the Office of Minority Health, utilizes information specialists to offer detailed searches of sources of federal, state, local, and foundation funding opportunities.

Eligibility

This customized funding search is intended for use by nonprofit organizations with 501(c)(3) status, faith-based organizations, hospitals/medical centers, universities, researchers, and students.

Process Duration

Information specialists utilized by the Resource Center explore federal, state, local, and foundation opportunities based upon customer-provided responses to a questionnaire. The entire process typically takes between five and seven business days. Depending on the level of detail provided by the customer, the information specialist may contact the customer for clarification and assurance of best research results.
