

Frequently Asked Questions

Learn more about the 2023 Advocacy Retreat by visiting the MFH's website.

When and where is the 2023 Advocates' Retreat?

The retreat will be held at the Hampton Inn at the University of Missouri in Columbia, MO on Wednesday, November 8.

How much does it cost to attend the in-person retreat?

There is no cost! The registration form can be found linked here, however registration has closed.

Will you accept walk-ins on the day of the retreat?

Due to a tremendous level of interest, we regret to inform you that we are unable to accept walk-in registrations. Pre-registrations have also closed. If you were planning to pre-register or register on the day of the event, we sincerely appreciate your interest and hope to see you at next year's Advocates' Retreat.

Will there be food?

Yes! MFH will provide lunch and snacks at the convening. Please specify dietary restrictions while registering.

What if I can only attend part of the retreat? Is it an option to attend various portions of the retreat and not attend the entire convening?

That's perfectly fine! We're happy to have you join for as much and as long as you're able.

Will the sessions be recorded? Will the retreat be hybrid?

This retreat will be 100% in-person this year. Unfortunately, we will not be able to offer hybrid sessions or session recordings.

Will you be able to share slide decks?

When appropriate/available, we are happy to share slide decks after the retreat.

Need more help?

We will have a live help desk available throughout the retreat. The phone number for the help desk will be shared on the day of the event. If you have questions before the retreat, you can reach MFH's Advocacy team at advocacy@mffh.org and (314) 345-5508.

Where do I park?

There is ample parking at the venue. Below, we have included a graphic that provides details about the parking options at the retreat venue.

Where are each of the sessions?

The sessions will be held in the conference center of the Hampton Inn and Suites of Columbia (at the University of Missouri). Below is a detailed graphic of the session rooms. The specific locations of each session will be shared on the official agenda.
