

Word/Phrase	All Residents	Race/Ethnicity*			Political Party
		Whites	African Americans	BIPOC	Dems.	Inds.	Reps.
The rising cost of living	71%	71%	78%	71%	59%	71%	82%
The cost of healthcare	67%	69%	63%	59%	72%	62%	65%
Drug and alcohol use	61%	60%	72%	68%	61%	66%	59%
Mental health	59%	57%	76%	67%	69%	60%	50%
The cost of housing	59%	58%	67%	64%	60%	58%	59%
Homelessness	59%	58%	71%	61%	68%	62%	48%
Crime, in general	55%	53%	80%	61%	50%	55%	60%
Gun violence	54%	50%	83%	68%	83%	52%	30%
Violent crime	54%	50%	77%	67%	61%	59%	45%
A lack of well-paid jobs with benefits	50%	48%	61%	57%	54%	55%	43%
Restrictions on reproductive rights	48%	48%	60%	48%	81%	48%	18%
Racial bias and discrimination	41%	36%	71%	58%	66%	38%	21%
Illegal immigration	38%	39%	30%	36%	12%	37%	62%
The availability of healthcare	38%	38%	44%	38%	49%	38%	29%
Climate change	36%	38%	32%	28%	65%	38%	8%
Hunger	34%	32%	41%	41%	43%	34%	27%
Police violence and misconduct	32%	29%	60%	41%	48%	35%	15%
Social isolation and loneliness	27%	25%	33%	35%	26%	33%	24%

* For the purpose of the poll, we define BIPOC as anyone who identifies with an ethnicity other than white; we also break out Black/African Americans separately for analysis because they are the only community of color with a large enough population for reliable separate analysis.